

HUNTER POWER PLANT

This power plant employs many from Carbon and Emery counties; it provides economic stability and tax base for the county; revenue generated together with planning have resulted in many benefits over the past 20, including new roads, schools, and recreation sites.

We do get some air pollution from the plant.